The attached customs power of attorney is to be completed and signed by an officer of the company, president, vice president, treasurer, or secretary of the corporation. This power of attorney is strictly limited to Customs business and transactions.

The company's complete legal name should appear on the first line after the words: "Know by all men by these presents".

The state in which the company is incorporated should be after the words: "a corporation doing business under the laws of the State of".

The company corporate address should appear after the words: "having an office and place of business at".

In the last paragraph is a provision for the date the importer wishes to have the power of attorney revoked. In most cases, this will be indicated with "UNTIL REVOKED" unless the importer chooses a limited time period for the power of attorney to be in effect. In which case the date of revocation would be indicated. It is recommended that a minimum time line of 30 days be allow for a clearance.

After the words, "IN WITNESS WHERE OF, the said" the company name should appear again. The officer's signature should appear on the next line where indicated. And finally the printed name of the officer, the corporation's IRS number and date.

Once the form is complete, please fax it back to us for approval. Then it is required by Customs that we maintain the original signature in our files.
